Re: Assisting to those affected by Covid-19

Springvale Indochinese Mutual Assistant Association (SICMAA) is funded by The State of Victoria as represented by its Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions. We have a special program to help you during COVID-19 crisis. Our services include:

- Provide information about COVID-19
- Help families stay alone, provide information and guidance to connect support services including “Emergency Relief Package” for special circumstances, assist with domestic violence, housing services and health etc..
- Fill out the application for government assistance, job search service, Centrelink, electric/water/gas and other bills payments assistance.
- Connect to support services for seniors/elderly and people with disabilities.

All of the services we provide are confidential and free.
